Transgender Inclusion in the Workplace

The Ultimate Rebranding: Himself
Join us for a conversation with Chris Edwards, a pioneer who helped shift the perceptions of an entire community by changing his gender from female to male while working at one of the top ad agencies in the country. Chris will share an array of stories about his gender transition and the secret to his success. His courageous journey, which is told in his forthcoming memoir Balls, will touch your heart and open your mind.

Transgender in the Workplace: Practical Implications and Advice
Jackie Glenn’s leadership has led to several groundbreaking efforts, including the implementation of the Transgender Reassignment Program at EMC². She has traveled nationally and internationally helping the company’s managers and employees prepare the work culture for transgender colleagues who are at various stages of transition. Jackie will provide advice and insight from her experiences engaging in this work for EMC².

Thursday, August 25, 2016, 1:30 – 3:30 p.m.
Harvard Hillel, Beren Hall, 52 Mount Auburn Street, Cambridge

Register online at http://hr.fas.harvard.edu/diversity

Staff members are encouraged to check in with their manager before registering.