FAS Diversity Dialogues 2012-2013

INCOGNITO
Wednesday, October 10, 2012

Michael Sidney Fosberg, actor, author, activist

Introductory remarks by Mahzarin R. Banaji, Richard Clarke Cabot Professor of Social Ethics, Department of Psychology; Senior Adviser to the Dean on Faculty Development.

This one-man performance will explore our perceptions of identity, stereotypes, race and family history.

10:00 a.m.—12:00 p.m., Student Organization Center at Hilles, 104 Event Hall, 59 Shepard Street, Cambridge

You are invited to a panel discussion with Michael Fosberg at 2 p.m.: American Masala: Race Mixing, the Spice of Life or Watering Down Cultures? Complete details at http://hr.fas.harvard.edu/diversity

COMING TO SEE PRIVILEGE SYSTEMS: A SURPRISING JOURNEY
Thursday, December 13, 2012

Peggy McIntosh, Ph.D., Associate Director of the Centers for Women, Wellesley College

Introductory remarks by William R. Fitzsimmons, Dean of Admissions and Financial Aid to Students in Harvard College.

This seminar will focus on the various dimensions of privilege and how we handle privilege, which can be the deciding factor between inclusion and exclusion.

10:00 a.m.—12:00 p.m., Radcliffe Gym, 10 Garden Street, Cambridge

ALMOST A WOMAN
Wednesday, April 3, 2013

Esmeralda Santiago, author, screenwriter, and essayist

Introductory remarks by Judith D. Singer, Senior Vice Provost for Faculty Development and Diversity; James Bryant Conant Professor of Education.

This presentation will explore themes of inclusion, migration, culture and sexuality through the personal stories and experiences of Esmeralda Santiago.

10:00 a.m.—12:00 p.m., Radcliffe Gym, 10 Garden Street, Cambridge

Complete information is available online at http://hr.fas.harvard.edu/diversity

Offered in partnership by the FAS Dean’s Office and FAS Human Resources.
Thank you to the Radcliffe Institute for their support in hosting these dialogues.